

Profile of Ms. Srushti Suresh Khadapkar

Ms. Srushti Suresh Khadapkar is a dynamic and passionate German language educator known for her student-centric approach and strong commitment to language excellence. Currently she teaches Second Year Bachelor of Management Studies (BMS) students at St. Francis Management & Research Institute, Borivali (W), Mumbai. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Mass Media (Advertising) from Pathkar College, Mumbai, and brings over seven years of professional experience in the advertising industry, where she honed her communication, creativity, and presentation skills.

Motivated by her passion for languages, she pursued German studies at the Goethe-Institut (Max Mueller Bhavan), successfully completing A1, A2, and B1 levels, and is currently progressing towards C1 proficiency. Her shift from the corporate sector to education reflects her dedication to teaching and lifelong learning.

With extensive teaching experience, Srushti has trained learners across a diverse age spectrum—from young children as early as 4 years old to adult learners up to 60 years—demonstrating her ability to adapt her teaching methodologies to varied learning styles and goals. She has served as a Visiting Faculty at Thakur Institute of Management Studies and Research, contributing to the academic curriculum through engaging and practical German language instruction.

She is also the founder of “German Meister,” a growing language institute based in IC Colony, Borivali, where she offers structured German language training from A1 to B1 levels. Her teaching emphasizes real-life communication, interactive learning environments, and personalized mentoring to ensure measurable student progress.

Srushti strongly believes in transforming passion into purpose. Her mission is to empower learners with confidence and fluency, enabling them to proudly say, “Ich kann Deutsch!” Her dedication, professionalism, and innovative teaching practices make her a valued contributor to the field of German language education.
